Our thanks are returned to Hons, M. W. Ranson and A. S. Merrimon, Sena- matters of as profound ignorance as tors from this State, for valuable pub- they are the subjects of little concern. blic documents recently received.

RAILROAD.

earnings and operating expenses of the hatred of us as a people turns their Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Rail- very ignorance of us into fruitful road, for the month of January, 1873, fountains of abuse and contamely, and congratulate the management upon cember, 1872, were much in excess of but have robbed us of our good names, And so the same months of 1871. October which has done infinitely more harm. shows over$16,000, November $23,000. and December $19,000, increase.

The prospects of the company are the market.

mington and Weldon, and Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroads, is Vice-President of this road, and Mr. the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta stending and bitter prejudices. Railroad as well fas the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad.

their duty can be arrested and carried . " one another," by that petty official.

"A Lay Sermon in Verse:" My text is: . [...] how great ado

So many seem the truth's denier-, That Credit Mobilier is well Translated Credit more big liars. Then let the immored tame of Ames

To able in the incorrect varies of Ares
To able in the one these maxims bring—Heed well took country's lawful claim;
And to the truth unswerving cling;
And tosk of all for peace and health,
Is this—now clearly understood—Whater wen have of this would's wealth.

plied promptly and fearlessly," says prices at which the various offices in the Indianapolis Journal, (Republi- the gift of the Government are held. can), referring to the necessity of cutting out the ulcers of corruption in the party. Put that and that together.

The subjects of the Emperor of tion at the Astor House on the 16th Leggett, and some ten or twelve years and 17th of April.

Milmington

Iournal.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 1873. "THE GREAT SOUTH." (Just b fore his death, Commodore Maury, Kn-Klux in Ireland. In the course of his oration delivered world. To the average foreigner the South is a terra incognita, lving somewhere on the Western Continent, but its exact location is undefined, and the character of its inhabitants, and its climate and its soil and its resources are

THE CHARLOTTE AND ALGUARA Northern States see us and judge of us and of our country through their pre-We have seen a statement of the judices only. Too frequently their

The ravenous horde of adventurers so gratifying a result. The following who have come amongst us to prey unon us, and the contemptible natives Then, hear me through the Goshen-Pass. The earnings in January were who have joined these plunderers and 989,518 89, gross, and 858,505 12, not villifiers for pelf-men who are not To Nature's own from never nearer; on increase over the corresponding worth the miserable pittances for which month of last year of more than $31,000 | they have bargained their souls-have of gross earning, and nearly $26,000 of given grounds for the falsehoods which net earnings. The business of the have done so much to prejudice the the we road is steadily increasing. The carn. South in the eves of the world. These ings for October. November and De. people have not only stolen our means, lorge at poths, the tangled clew

The South suffers not so much from the world's ignorance of us, as from the world's ignorance of us, as from the bow-d more lovingly before the projection to us. the world's ignorance of us, as from The statement for February is not its prejudice to us. In order, therecompleted, but the totals are estimated fore, to get other people to learn some. Ne sage of all the sages past. to be nearly equal to those of January. thing of our people and of our country, Upon he had nearly age has cost we must first overcome their aversion. very promising. The floating debt is It will be in vain to talk and write of being rapidly decreased, its bonds ap- the law-abiding character of our citipreciating in value, and are now con. zens, of the salubriety of our climate. sidered one of the best investments in the fruitfulness of our soil, and the wealth of our mines, so long as peo-Mr. Bridgers, President of the Wil. ple's hearts are closed to us. Our appeal must be made to their feelings. Their hearts must first be opened to us. Then we may hope, by a better ac-successful effort must be inaugurated STATE vs. FEDERAL RIGHTS. . elsewhere. What we have to say in Frequently to state a case, just as our own behalf is received with disit happens, "nothing extenuate or trust, and frequently with disbelief. South Carolina, has recently made a pose these fairies were? Why, they set down aught in malice," is a better It is for this reason we always hail descent on the people of Robeson and were some 4,000 tenants in white sheets frame. Therefore we shall illustrate how rapidly the most vital principles of a representative government are of a repres of a representative government are everything which makes a country four or five boxes of tobacco from the times Tories, later Whiteboys, now-apassing away, and how surely centrali- great, we are richly blessed with in store of Mr. F. Henderson, belonging days they are called Fenians-I supzation is usurping its forms, as it has the South. Not only in its extent man, part of a box of the same from called Ku-Klux. [Great laughter.] already destroyed its substance, of territory and magnitude of its in- Messrs. McLean & Co., and an empty by publishing the following in- terests and capacities, but in its tobacco box from Mr. Ed. Hayes. The eident, which we take from the political, social and military history plea of seizure was that the boxes were Richmond Whig, in regard to the the South is essentially great. And his party, was at Laurinburg yesterarrest of a State Judge by a United we are glad to know that the publish- day and, it is said, goes up to Anson ers of Scribner's Monthly have under- county to-day. At the last February term of the taken to make known the resources grand jury preferred an indictment tion to its advantages to the world and eral years past Auditor of the W. C. & against a colored school-teacher named especially to the North. To this end R. R. R., has tendered his resignation J. J. Carter for riotous and disorderly they have enlisted the services of Mr. of that office, which has been accepted conduct, and for firing pistols in the Edward King, well known as the author pointed to the vacant position. streets at Patrick Court House on the of My Paris, and a graphic delineator made upon the evidence of Caleb of twelve articles to appear in twelve a coarteons and obliging gentleman, tion in writing to Smith, in which he largest and most important enterprises prosperity. called Smith a d-d rascal and a d-d ever undertaken by an American magathis letter from Carter to Judge the entire winter, in preparing materi-Samuel G. Staples, of Patrick, and all for his articles by travel and perasked for a warrant for the arrest of sonal inspection of the Southern After four failures, Solicitor Cantpose, arrested Carter in the hight " and will be written with no other on the conduct of Judge Bond of the sudden break from his captors and "teresting, fruitful and picturesque means a unit wful as they are extraor- of water, known as the days. Mr. succeeded in getting away safely, "regions of our common country, divery," even after one oftempt in the although the sheriff fired upon him. "While they will aim to convey reli. Same court but failed. We have for, and the supposed evil removed. The Staples, the sheriff and his posse. On " and with the quick insight hate and will send to Baltimore for wit-

U.S. Commissioner on a warrantissued | will do his work well. We are per- done with the nails torn out of the The Hartford (Conn.) Evening Post good purpose. This monthly has of granite, joined by Roman coment, quotes the following stanzas as having always kept aloof from partisan poli- and is sixteen feet thick. The prisoners, match manufacturer, charged with the Eastern High School. They are its new efforts are about to be turned. out on the rocks, whence they escaped In 1869 Howard was one of the most cut from a long original poem entitled We shall watch the publication with to England.

The Washington Sunday Gazette formed for the purpose of manufacsays that a letter has been intercepted, written by one of the Georgia office utalized for an export trade without Staten Island shore, and was accidentbrokers. The letter was addressed to affecting the price of stock in Texas. a certain aspirant for office, and the since there are about ten million head broker demands the sum of four hun- of cattle in the State. The natural indred dollars for a recommendation of more animals than can be utilized the office-seeker to a two thousand profitably by any process heretofore dollar position. It would facilitate in use for preserving and transporting "There is a revolution ahead," cries their business and be a great accomthe Fittsburg Chronicle, an indepen- modation to purchasers if Grant's office dent journal. "The knife must be ap- brokers would publish a schedule of scribed to a student undergoing ex-

to lead to the alter Miss Anna Fox, got his diploma. daughter of the late George S. Fox, of | Charleston, S. C., with a population | Two Connecticut towns are contest-China are supposed to number 390,Westchester county. Miss Fox is a of 50,000 has imported, during the possession of th China are supposed to number 390,- Westchester county. Miss Fox is a of 50,000 has imported, during the past ing the possession of a pauper. They The prominent advertising agents of York Quakerism, on her mother's side ida), 16,683 bunches bananas, and 507,- in the county for a year. the United States will hold a conven- grand daughter of the late Thomas 191 cocoanuts.

speaking in reference to the final removal of his remains from Lexington, expressed the wish that the removal should take place in May

> THROUGH THE PASS. BY MARGAPET J. PRESTON.

Even the masses of the people of the But not while skies are overspread.

. Wall till the learnt hurses its buds. And consping two flings its graces. About the cirber's rocks—and floors.

nd never temped the to terpart Her fore to une who held it cearer.

The lightning-footed thought might travel

His noble living, for the ends God set him - duty underlying Each thought, word, action.) nanoht franscend In instre, save his noblar dying. tio hi muge, she, and sir, and grass! All things he cherished sweet and tender. As through our gergeous Mountain-Pass We hear him in his sunset appreder!

We welcome the appearance of the Enterprise, a very handsome new James Anderson is Superintendent of quaintance with us, to overcome long weekly just begun in Madison, Rockingham county. It is published by Messrs, Oliver & Thompson, is Conserv-But at the start we can do little for ative in politics and will prove a very take the ourselves. We can aid others, and the welcome ally in the field of journalism.

Mevenne Baids. We understand that Perry, the Suto a wagoner by the name of Black- pose in this country they would be what reluciantly consented

Smith, a respectable resident of the successive numbers of Scribner's the office, as all will testify who have facts as we hear them are as follows : Monthly on the Life, Condition and been brought into contact with him. Soon after the adjournment of the Resources of the Southern States. He resigns with the view of embarking Lancaster county, a man by the name

The Texas Meat Trade. turing preserved meats and meat excrease in the present herds supplies

A famous French physician deamination a disease culminating by degrees to the most dangerous symptoms, and asked, "What would you the "gateway to the Pacific coast, 605 oranges, (beside 50,000 from Flor- would have supported all the paupers military post at Balaklava.

AMERICAN NUNS IN ROME.

Cletic origin of the Ku-Klux: No one who loves Ireland and sympathises with human suffering, would of the Sacred Heart. like to lift the veil which covers her history during the four centuries that that three American ladies were resucceeded her invasion by the Normans, for this is the suddest and most heartrending page of her annals. There is an unfortunate but striking the white weil. During their life in family likeness between this first the world these ladies were Miss Clara union of Ireland under Henry Plant- Devine, a native of Savannah, agenet, and the second union consum- and Miss Alice Furlong and Miss mated in the year 1800, for both were Mary Fenelon, both of New Orleans.

Wm. Grayson Manu, Esq., related the following interesting facts of Irish history, which would seem to indicate the corruption. [Applause.] and agitating independence which she had so long and uselessly enjoyed, and was so unavailingly contending for; the Misses Devine and Fencion, were but that if united to the flourishing and powerful realm of Britain, the benevolent and mighty monarch would find it to be the interest of her fends and promote her prosperity.

The English soon found that the most cheap, certain and feasible mode of retaining the Irish in due subjection was by fomenting jealousies and stirring up strife among the native chieftains. History is constantly repeating itself, and tyrannical governments whatever their form, invariably resort to the same modes of enforcing their authority upon an unwilling people and crashing them into submission. So England, not being able to overcome the stubborn resistance of the natives, sent over swarms of carpet-bag adventurers, smong whom she parcelled out the lands of the Irish. She then bought up all the corrupt native scalawag chiefs [laughter] by giving them fat offices and dignity, and set them to work to pres upon the people. Finding that even this was not enough, she passed such cruel and outrageous laws that the distracted people were forced to law into their own popular ust se of their own This

POISON AGAIN.

Rumers of Wholesale Murders in Lancaster County, Pa. The Lancaster Express tells the following startling story :
"A very intelligent and reliable gentleman-a citizen of Kinzer's Sta-County Court of Patrick county, the of our grand section, and to call atten- Platt D. Cowan, Esq., for sev- tion, this county-writes to us as folour community is disturbed or its inand Mr. Wm. N. Bowden has been ap- ring within its limits; but we have to chronicle a case which from the respec-Mr. Cowan has not only proved him. tability of the parties concerned, is Sabbath day. The indictment was of life and manners, to prepace a series self a capable and faithful official, but likely to create a sensation, not only in the neighborhood in which it happened. but throughout the whole county. The

"There lived in Salisbury township, court Carter addressed a communica- This is just'y regarded as one of the in another business, and he has our of Henry Eaby, a miller by occupation. roost cordial wishes for his success and and a well-to-do and highly respected citizen. He was also a member of the Mr. Bawden, the new Auditor, is a Mennonite Church, of which seet there gentleman of experience and business is a predominancy in this section of the meeting for a fight. Smith exhibited the entire winter, in preparing material the Company.

Mr. King has been engaged, during ability, and will make a good officer of county. About two years ago his wife that to be the 'better part.' The num of the forest, turned his face upward professed irreversibly declined. same manner. Medical aid was at nun received but enters on a proba- promised to do, intimating at the same once summoned, and the physicians though term of two years, at the ex- time his belief that we cherished an asked for a warrant for the arrest of sonal inspection of the Southern Alter four inspection of the Southern rest, directed it to the sheriff of the expected carry this spring. These mingten Journals for label, in that the county, who, accompanied by a small articles "will be brilliantly illustrated, and county who, accompanied by a small articles "will be brilliantly illustrated, and county who, accompanied by a small articles "will be brilliantly illustrated, and county who, accompanied by a small articles "will be brilliantly illustrated, and county who, accompanied by a small articles "will be brilliantly illustrated, and county who, accompanied by a small articles "will be brilliantly illustrated, and county who are small articles and county who are small articles are small articles and an articles are small articles are small articles." solved. The physicians examined the state which hest may please Him. The overlooked the insult, and he went posse, arrested Carrier in the night "and will be written with no other of the condition of the prepases, and gave it as their opinion content bell hed just tolled the "An- home with his menageric, The next that it might be come from the well of the condition o Enby had the well thoroughly cleansed annough the shering fired upon him. White they will arm to convey relicular to the shering of the shering of the shering of the social of the age Mr. Eabs, after eating his supper. cossion formed by little girls bearing | On Sunday last Mr. Richard Cardwarrant there from U. S. Commission- "suggested by a personal survey, they or some such like. Should the Jornson at its head a rich and massive cruciax, well sustained a fracture of the left leg warrant there from U. S. Commission- "suggested by a personal survey, they or some such that the form of such that the suggested by a personal survey, they or some such that the form is the first of Judge "will be written in the graphic style, and will send to Baltimore for with the table, that it tasted so the table, that it tasted so the company with his father and this matter, but we cannot help re- "fair showing for its own satisfaction, covered a way from their dormitory to that circumstances point very strongly turned marking that the times must be greatly. " we open a most interesting page to a cellar under it, and determined to to the guilt of a certain party in the ment $15,000. The case of Benona Howard, a rich extensive match manufacturers in the country, and is alleged to have had a plate engraved from which he had nue stamps printed to be used on his match boxes. The counterfeit plate tracts. Thousands of bullocks are was thrown into Prince's Bay, near the ally discovered by a fisherman named Storm, after it had lain in the water several months. It came into the possession of Col. Whitley, who discovored that the plate had been engraved by Edward Pearce, and that it had been printed from by John Rippon, who confessed that he was hired to do tion and preparation of the case cost the Government $15,000. N. Y. San.

> Omaha, Neb., is so proud of being luxury of sidewalks.

on St. l'atrick's Day in Savannah, Ga., THREE SOUTHERN BELLES

Four in Europe that Euded in a Convent-An Imposing Ceremony in the World-Renowned Convent

Roser, Feb. 22,-I have just learned ceived on the 19th inst., at the Convent of the Presentation. In conventual phraseology receiving means taking effected by fraud and maintained by For nearly two years these young women were associated at the schools of At a conference in 1170, her chiefs the French Sisters of the Sacred Heart were told in nearly the same words on the Pincian Hill. In these famous that disgreed her Parliament in 1800, schools ladies representing almost that there could be no remission of every civilized nation congregate, and her internal feuds, no protection our own Republic has now several of against future massacre, but by a vol- her worthy daughters imbibing culture untary sacrifice of that mischievous and grace from these fountains of learning and virtue.

wrapt in the enjoyment of a continental tour when they paid a casus! visit to the Convent of the Sacred heart. was merely one of the lions which absorbed their interest while in the City of the Seven Hills. Their visit made, THE LIGHT-HEARTED AMERICAN GIRLS returned to their hotel to prepare for the opera at the Argentino and plan the programme of the morrow. During their visit to the Freuch Sisters, Misses Devine and Fenelou promised to call some other day, and at an earlier hour. in order to see the schools in working order and be introduced to several of their countrywomen who were being educated there. It was this second tiny of the young and buoyant tourists. They were captivated by the excollent discipline of the institution, by the manners of the pupils, and the benevolence of the uuns in charge, -The American girls thenceforth called often at the Convent of the Sacred Heart. Miss Devine was accompanied by her father, and Miss Fencion by her brother during ther Enropean travel. and these gentlemen while preparing hands and exercise a certain, wild, to leave Rome were urgently pressed b the daughter and sister to consent ney and his fairies. Who do you say, months. Mr. Devine calmly sucterian Church, as strongly protested sussion Miss Fencion's brother some-lives to the cold, solemn cloister.

clustrity and obedience, pronounced by ing branches of that noble old monarch self to God in the religious life. The bringing home his dog, as we had to atter the response of the blessed.

now robed in black gowns of coarse forty-six feet, till they reached the wall | unless criminal proceedings are insti- serge and wearing white linea wells. suaded that the enterprise has been woodwork, but when the rampant wall A Fisherman's Curious Haul-A crosses with which the bishop was to was reached the usils were useless. Case that has Cost the Govern, invest them, and for which they joys. Stanislaus Antoldi, employed in the with them the trees which overhung. lives that they had chosen. The choir $2 in money. then began a joyful anthem!

render-thus closing the struggle for

SIMMS' DOG.

BY MAX ADELER. We did not want to take Simms' dog home for him; but Simms insisted upon it. He wanted to go somewhere to meet a man and so he placed one end of the chain in our hand, and left before we had time to remonstrate. So, as it was absolutely necessary to do something with the dog, we concluded that it would be better to do as Simms suggested, and take him home. He started home with him, he seemed distain a preference for lying down and force, he flew at our legs and attempt- asked her the simple question, without ed to help himself to a mouthful, so any rhetorical embellishments, and on Two of the newly received sisters, that he could in future have another being answered had plunged at once cheerful recollection upon which to into his newspaper, as though he had siezed a cane, one end of which was could have cried with vexation. inserted in his collar, so that could be he was suddenly seized with an intense he deliberately turned over the sheet yearding to reach Simms' house at to find the telegraph reports. once, and he started with a jump. For three or four hundred yards the procession went on smoothly enough; but we should, perhaps, have gone good looking man, whose gallantry to more rapidly towards Simms' if the the sex is only exceeded by his bradog had not been possed of an irresist-very in their defence." Fred was other dog that came within a square of visit which probably shaped the des. sociability. There was a bigger dog, sarcastically. which seemed more auxious to commune with Simms's dog than the latter with him. The brief interview ended ces, you know are getting slimmer with a fight. We were so much inter- every day. ested that when hostilities began we climbed impetuously over a fence, in order, as it were, to obtain a better are ineligible. You will grow old and, standpoint from which to view the con- andfliet. We watched the fray from the other side, while we passed the chain monstrous," exclaimed Miss Newton, soothe the excited passions of the par- ples. ties. Summs's dog, we regret to say, ! popular ust se of their own This to their becoming pupils of the French half the county of Kerry was ruled over for many years by Donald Malo Sisters for at least the period of six borhood.

Whisped. Then we concluded to vary Miss Becky. Will you mar—

an intentic borhood. but Mr. Fenelon, who is of the Presby- cross the fence he made such a savage customed to such insults, sir." us. So he began to crawl through the folded up his paper and replaced it in morning, you see." fence at the panel through which his his pocket. "I was a fool to good her chain went. Just as be completed the for his sister's six months tuition and task we adjourned with singular But I'll have her," he exclaimed, aloud. board at their convent. These six promptness to the other side. Simms's months were extended to a year, when | dog looked surprised and grieved, but about the anniversary of their entrance | he emitted a savage growl and began about the anniversary of their entrance inc emitted a save, and the second their into the schools of the French nuns, a to crawl back again. It seemed then son of the present, pacing nervously up and down the piazza, from the von then you would never have another Ames built.

C. W. is the second their entrance in considerations of a strictly person of the present, pacing nervously up and down the piazza, from the second them are the second the second them are the second them are the second them are the second the second them are the second the secon three young American ladies had closed that we should return to the previous their accounts with the world-that side of the fence; and when we did. Clara Devine, Alice Furlong, and Simms dog seemed to regard it as a Mary Fencian had devoted their young sacred duty to climb back at once. We like a dog to have perseverance and In describing the reception of the determination, and Simus's dog had, postulants a Roman paper says; "The As these gymnastics were fast becomcchoes of sacred music might still be ing monotonous, we concluded to vary supposed to linger around the precincts them; so we let the dog go and reof the little conventual sactuary, for paired to a neighboring tree. As soon five other foreign ladies, who on that the foot of the tree to wait till we deanspicious day, shered to the name of seended. He stayed there four hours on the foregoing Sunday sweet voices as the dog arrived he sate up.

were chanting the appropriate hymns swhile and drank in the scene. Then he seemed satisfied, and lay down at Fred's whole bills for a month, she and so did we. We couldn't desert such a faithful dog as that. At the end of that time Simms hove in sight, and, standing there beneath the o itspread-

Booky Newton did not desire to allow not half believe him. vidov slip by unimmoved. time and started with him to the Court "object than that of representing, by House. On the way Carter made a "pen and pencil, one of the most institute of virgin to the the angelic salutation, and A Vonney Man who has Broken Becky Newton's heart, a feeling very Fred Pekersen's wife after all. Sunday all these parties were arrested by the U.S. Marshel and erricd to by the U.S. Marshel and erricd to Danville, where they arrived Monday.

Danville, where they arrived Monday.

They were then heldimenstody though at 10 o'clock, when they were taken to delice, when they were taken to delice, when they were taken at 10 o'clock, when they were taken minimation. That functionary not being ready, further proceedings in the affair ready further proceedings in the affair were adjourned till the first Monday.

They were taken to o'clock, when they were taken arrived and fifty or three handers are adjourned till the first Monday.

They were taken to o'clock, when they were taken at 10 o'clock, when they were taken are adjourned till the first Monday.

They were taken to o'clock, when they were taken at 10 o'clock, when they were taken at 10 o'clock, when they were taken are adjourned till the first Monday.

They were taken to o'clock, when they were taken at 10 o'clock, when they were taken at 10 o'clock, when they were taken are adjourned till the first Monday was despited when they were taken at 10 o'clock, when they were taken a were aljourned till the first Monday were aljourned till the first Monday in April, when U.S. District Attorney in April, when U.S. District Attorney is a prince of the present and imples is expected to be present, and the prisoners were released on their own recognizances to appear.

We have no comments to make upon the prisoners to make upon the first many of the first many of the imposing ceremony the linghest of this description the formation to the prisoners to make upon the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the formation to the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the final to the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the final to the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the final to the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the final to the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the prisoners trom the forties the prisoners trom the forties the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the family. A crows on the prisoners trom the fortress of this description the family to the prisoners trom the fortress of the family to the prisoners trom the fortress of the family to the prisoners trom the fortress of the family to the prisoners trom the fortress of the family to the prisoners trom the fortress of the family to the prisoners trom the forties the prisoners trom the forties the prisoners trom the family to the prisoners trom the forties twe suppose that the ossideation of the cartilacinous structure is of slow development, and the young man is, as fully sacrificed the bracelets, chains, | Register's office, and living at No. 223 | the stream.

Sisters bure the cinctures, beads, and | Dangers on the Horse-Cars | Daring

Tobacco smoke contains ammonia, American independence? And are you pyridine, picoline, lutidine, collidine 191 cocoanuts.

A life of Rousseau, by John Morley, also aware that this grandson of GeneThe Russians are going to make a whose Voltaire attracted so much atral Morgan, a most worthy man, is in valerianic and carbolic acids, and creosote-and, Trask says, death, fast as this freshet can carry you."

LOVE ON A LOC.

"Miss Becky Newton."
"Well, sir."

"Will you marry me?" "No. I won't." "Very well; then don't, that's all Mr. Fred Eckerson drew away h chair, and putting his feet up on the piazza, unfolded a newspaper. Miss Becky Newton bit her lip and went on with her sewing. She wondered that was going to be the last of it. had felt this proposal coming for nearly was a large dor, and his temper was a month, but the scene she had anticinot of angelic sweetness. When we pated was not at all like this. She had intended to refuse him, but it was to inclined to go. He appeared to enter-tain a preference for lying down and firm, notwithstanding his most easer thinking-probably about the succest entreaties. She was to have told him lence and juiciness of the bites he had | that though respecting his manly worth taken out of human legs during his and upright character, she could never career. When we pulled at the chain be to him more than an appreciative he growled. When we whistled he and earnest friend. She had intended rose and shook up the hair on his to shed a few tears, perhaps, as he spine and showed his teeth. When knelt writhing in an agony of suppliwe attempted to drag him along by cation at her feet. But instead he had muse and ponder. We dedged and merely inquired the time of day. She "You will never have a better kept at a respectable distance. Then chance," he continued after a pause, as "A better chance for what?" asked shortly. A better chance to marry a young, ible desire to be sociable with every quoting from his newspaper, but Miss other dog that came within a square of Newton did not know it. 'And whose egotism is only exceeded by his impudence," retorted the lady, "Before long," continued Fred, "you will be out of the market. Your chan-

"It won't be a great while before you between the panels and endeavored to rising heatily, and flushing to the tem-home again. But the blood of Simms's land,"interrupted Miss Newton, throwdemonstration at us that we thought! And so saying she passed to the

so. I shall never win her in that way, | said Becky. "By Heaven, I'll have her, cost what he replied. Newton with all his heart. The real lifficulty in the way, as he more than half suspected, was not so much with himself as in his pocket. Becky Newempty wallet. The daughter of a wealthy Louisiana planter, reared in luxury and the recipiest of a weekly allowhad no immediate idea of changing her such a chance of becoming a wealthy Becky really was so indifferent to Fred Eckermon, why did she run up stairs starch all out of her nice clean, pillow-shams by croing herself into hysteries on the bed. It was not all wrath, not all vexation, it was not all pique. There was somewhere deep down in much like remorse. She was not very sure she would not some day be sorry strong, the far from either bend to twas his wife's (in a born), lest it for what she had done. She had no As it prow dark their situation grow implications the popular scorn, if As it prow dark their situation grow in the family doubt she could be very kappy as with the recollection, "I never could ! live with such a man, -never!" upon its coff e-colored boson an ener- me warm. You are freezing." more mass of floating timber, which in which they first appeared, being velopment, and the young man is, as was desired and at the boung money is were, but in the gristle, and not yet rendering navigation wholly impossi. In make that with his disease gradhand the frequent erashes far and near told spiration from his brow. of the undergining power of the current, as sections of the sandy banks sac umbed and disappeared. carrying ing in shore now."

and ornaments of precions metal which High street, Brooklyn, left the house | Now, it hampened that he a curious had graced their persons on the first of Mr. Rouzone, No. 25 cast Eighty- coincidence, Miss Newton also reserved mine away." quotes the following stanzas as having been read at the late Oakes Ames' reception by C. R. Ballard, principal of comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which comparison politics, and for this very reason can do the direction to which the direction to overhead, the awakening was not at all his head, and pulled with all his might, generally known, although quite a Antoldi fled from his assaliants and to her mind. A terrible crash made | The headlong course of the cottonwood number of people are interested in it. Many American ladies and gentle- made his way to the police-station in chaos of her dreams; the ground slip- was checked; it plunged heavily and A circular will be sent from the men were present at those ceremonies, Eighty-Sixth street, and reported what | ped from beneath her; the tall cotton- | partly turned over, its top became en- | Census Office to-morrow to all persons and among them a few personal ac- had occurred. Roundsman McConnell wood toppled and fell; and Miss Booky tangled in the sycamore, and a service interested, setting forth that "Conthe work by Howard. The investiga-tion and preparation of the case cost Sisters.

| With a gress, by an act approved March 3, suit of the ruffians, and captured then mersed in the cold flood, with her sudden spring Fred gained the pro- 1873, has authorized the payment, on a Fifth-avenue car, which they had mouth full of muddy water. In a mo- jecting branch, dragging his clinging without proof of loyalty, of claims for A Patriot's Descendant in Want. boarded and were attempting to rob meat more, somebody's arm was around burden with him. In another instant compensation on account of services at A communication to the Philadelphia the passengers, threatening to kill them ber and she felt herself lifted up and the cottonwood had broken away and the census of 1860," and giving in-Press reads: "Are you aware, Mr. with the large sheath-knives which placed somewhere in the surshine, continued its voyage down the river, structions concerning the preparation Hon. Augustus Schell, who has lived to a mature age as a bachelor, is about to be sugaranteed its voyage down the river, somewhere in the sugarantee in the su gan, the victor of Cowpens, who de- and chain were found in their posses- E kerson's whiskers nearly I rathing tated into the stream again. Fred, leated Tarleton, uncovered the flank of sion. The prisoners were taken before her face. half supporting, half dragging Becky, worked his way to the trunk by aseries "Well!" of gymnastics that would have done no discredit to Blondin, and in a moment

"Where am I?" asked Becky, shivering and looking around her. "In the middle of the Mississippi," replied Fred, "and you are in the fork of a cottonwood-tree and you are voyaging toward the Gulf of Mexico just as

"How came you here!" self, Miss Becky. In fact, you and I and the tree all came together, to say Fred lifted her lightly in his arms and nothing of a portion of your father's started for the house. It proved to be sition, but of her appearance when she warmth and shelter. Booky was soon was lying asleep on the grass. How long were you there before his happened?" she asked. "As long as you were. I the tree when you came. "You had no right to be there," she truded on my privacy, and while you maintained almost utter silence since slept I watched over you, like the their escape from the cottonwood, was sweet little cherub that sits up aloft." "Thank you for the service, I'm sure," she said, bridling. "You suored awfully.

NO. 11.

"Mr. Fekerson, remove your arm It was Beeky who spoke first, om my waist.' Then put yours around my neck." "Indeed I will do no such thing." "You will fell into the river if you not?"

Becky was silent for several moments, while their unwieldy craft "I thank you very much." whirled along the current, rolling from "Quite welcome, I am sure." side to side and threatening every instant to turn completely over and tip ken only by the sound of the horse's them off. At last she said -What are we to do?"

"I think, now that I am started, I ual case, for he kept his whip in conshall go on to New Orleans," no restant motion, and held the reins ner-"Fed? "Yes?" "It is a hundred miles." "Yes, and the chances for a free passage for such a distance is not to be neglected. You can go ashore if you prefer. She burst into tears.

"You are cruel," he said, "to treat He turned his eyes full upon her, "Cruel!" exclaimed Fred, drawing her closer to him, quickly,-"cruel

There was no help for it, and she hide her face and carefully separating again relapsed into silence, quite con- the fringe of her mantilla, "that pertent, apparently, to remain in Fred's arms, and evincing now no disposition question—that you did yesterday to rebel. For once in her life she was morning-I might answer a little-dif dependent on a man. "I want to go to New Orleans," continued Fred, and after a pause, "because there is a young lady of my acquaintance residing there, whom I have an intention of inviting into this neigh- | never intended to do otherwise, if we get out of this scrape, I shall write for her to come away." "Ab !"

"I shall obtain board for her in St. "She is never so handsome as when Jean, which will be convenient for me Catholics. Through Mr. Devine's per- was animated by aggressive zeal. If she is in rage," thought Fred to him- as long as I remain your father's guest. Eckerson is asked where it was that we would not go to him he would go to self, after she had gone, as he slowly I can ride over after breakfast every she fell in love with her husband, she "She is an intimate friend, then,"

"I expect to marry her before long," "Marry her! Why you-you pro-

receiving his dismissal from the woman | Becky was silent again. It is a mat- that Ames built. he loved, with such calm and imper- ter of some doubt whether, had Fred | M. C.'s are the rats that ate of the water and his arm around her waist, would have accepted him or not. To in the road that Ames built ton had an insuperable objection to an be sure a marvelous change had come The "brass-collar press" is the dog one strong arm like that which sup- road that Ames built. ported her was worth a thousand old | Truth is the cow with the crumpled nized the fact that a man who could worry the cat for snatching such rats sitution for one of less comfort and talk so cooly and une meernedly in a as ate of the mait that Lay in the road independence. Besides, it had been situation of such extreme peril, was that Ames built. intimated to her that a neighboring one of no ordinary courage. But she | Poland is the maiden all forlors that planter of unusual aristocratic lineage was not yet quite prepared to give up half milked the cow with the crumpled had looked upon her with covetous her golden dreams. The dross was born that hoisted the dog that got mad eyes. To be sure, he was old and not quite washed out of her soul, and at the cat for exposing the rats that are igly, but he was rich, and in her pres- she did not yet know how much she of the mult that Miss loved Fred Eckerson. Besides she did | Ames built.

But also for human asture! If root first, now sideways, and now half that half milked the cow with the submerged beneath the boding cur- crumpled horn, ch more uncertain as their fram s became | priest all chaven and shorn who comvain Fred endeavoyed to attract the on the maiden all forlow, etc., ad shore. The softonwood retained a Fear is the cock that crowed in the red Eckerson's wife after all. more and more hopeless, and to Beeky must should be found in the family there, "she cried, growing hot death, either by drowning in the sired to adorn the chair of the man darkness or by exhaustion before day- now tattered and toru that benied was dashed along in the boiling flood, was so awful hot," and taking out his ole. The waters were still rising, and the made a protence of wiping the per-"How long have I been asleep?" "About three hours. We are drift-around my neck, for I'm going to take

"I don't know. Put your arms

"Shall we be saved?"

The log had been gradually nearing the close of the war the effort has been more both had reached the ground in "Inat's a business we are well out of," he said when he had regained his breath. "Now where are we?"

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One Square, one week $1 00 One Square, two weeks..... 1 50 One Square, one month 2 84

One Square, three months..... One Square, six months...... 13 Co

Additional Squares at proportional rates.

Cash, invariably in advance.

A Square is equal to TEN SOLID LINES of ad

mering from behind them, a short dis-"In the same conveyance with your- tance from where they stood. Becky could not walk without great pain, and plantation, which, I fear, is lest to the dwelling of a small planter who was not lacking in hospitality. Here Bocky was silent. She was thinking, their wants were quickly attended to, at of the accident or the perilous po- and under the cheering influence of herself again. They drove home the following day, Fred having procured the loan of the planter's horse and chaise for that purpose, promising to return them by Mr. Newton's servant the day after. aid, coloring, - "a spyupon my move- The morning was bright and clear. and the fragance of the orange groves was in all the air. Becky, who had no less silent now. Fred himself did not appear particularly communicative, and many miles of the long ride were taken without a remark from either. "Fred !" she said.

"Yes. "You have saved my life, have you "Happy to do it any day," he said, not knowing exactly what else to say.

hoof upon the road. Fred himself seemed to have lost some of his habit-

"Are you going to write to that young lady in New Orleans ?" "I s'pose so." "Had'nt you-hetter -try again-before you write?" and opened them wide "Try again ? try what ?" "I've been thinking through the haps-if you asked me again the same "Becky's head went against Fred's shoulder and her face became imme diately lost to view. "You darling!" he exclaimed, "I young lady in New Orleans was wholly "If we don't go to New Orleans, and you change your mind?"

"I have never changed it," she murmured. "I have loved you all the time, but never knew it until last And to this day, when Mrs. Becky

MOBILIER FOR THE NURSERY.

The Road That Ames Built. From the Ruffule Courier The Union Pacific is the road that answers, "On a Log."

C. M. is the malt that lay in the road at that moment, sitting astride that malt that lay in the road that Ames proposed to her a second time, she the rats that ate of the mali that lay over Becky's feelings since her tumble that worried the cat for exposing those to the river. She felt just then that rats that are of the malt that lay in the and decrepid planters, and, she recog- horn that tossed the dog that would

"S. C." is the man all tattered and The clausey vessel floated on, now torn, that lied to the mades all forlorn, rent. Their precarious hold became: Herry Wilson is the (K. N.) high,

Even or New York Margin What chance have the Democrats or any confition to elect a President in Grant being elected for a third term. True it may be said that would be unprocedented. But let us consider how flattering it would be to the ambition of any man to be chosen President three times by the American people? Can we suppose that Gen. Grant would not be gratified to have tirn of mind, took off his gas meter to repair it himself, and put it on again upside down. At the end of the quarter, it was proved with mathematica correctness that the gas company owed A compositor of Dubuque has successfully set his one for a Southern heiress with $500,000 in her own right.

An Irish gentieman of a mechanical

The Southern Cenans.

him eight dollars and fifty cents.

He looked about. A light was glimyounger than her affianced husband.

out of joint indeed when a State judge "the whole country, and reveal our make a road from the cellar to the sea, neighborhood. Although the name of and sheriff, in the regular discharge of "people at once to themselves and to the sank a shaft in the earth, thir- the suspected party is in our possesto any distance for trial before a petty. We can only hope that Mr. King of the rampant. All this had been tuted. We await developments. undertaken in good faith and for a It is constructed of enormous blocks

A Texas meat company has been tention, is nearly ready.

the cloister. The bishop then turning Green, aged seventeen. Antoldi, be- huge cotton-word tree on the bank be- slightest hesitation. In the darkness dent was never honored? to the Beverend Mother, asked her coming alarmed at their threatening low the house. Throwing herself upon Fred did not know that she imprinted whether the had made the usual in-demeasor, jumped on a Madison-Ave-! the grass, and halled by the hubbing a kiss mon his shirt-boson. thousands of dollars of one cent reve- quiries, and whether she was satisfied one car going down town. The young of the rapid flood beneath her, she "Hold fast now!" he cried. "Hold fast now!" he cried. with the postulants, and she responding followed him on the ear, and soon fell fast asleep. Had she postulants, and she responding in the affirmative, he proceeded to attacked him with sheath-knives. The sessed any power of foreseeing the full the shore for some time, and it now made to secure authority for the payreligious reception. And covering sailants from the car. One of the she would have done, for although it shot suddenly under a large sycamore ment of the consus-takers of 1860 in their heads with the white veils, he scamps thereupon stabbed Antoldi in was very pleasant dropping asleep, which overhung the bank and trailed the southern States. The effort finally prayed that they might be an outward the face with a knife, and the two robs there in the shade, with the soft sun- its branches in the brown flood. Onick succeeded in the last days of the last mblem of the inward purity of the bed him of a gold watch and chain and light mestering through the leaves as thought Fred seized the himb above session, but it does not seem to be

> Cornwallis then retreating from York- Justice Bixby, at the Fifty-Seventhtown, Va., forced him back upon York- Street Court, and fully committed for town, where he was invested by Gene- trial, bail being refused.